What you should know:

Come and join us for our You, me and God camp this Summer at Holyground

What should you bring to camp?

- Old clothes including something warm
- Old closed in shoes (for health and safety in the kitchen)
- Sleeping bag or blankets, sheet, pillow
- Sunhat, togs and towel – modest swimwear essential, please bring a shirt/shorts
- Personal toiletries (toothbrush, toothpaste), any required medication
- Bible if you have one
- Baking for the kitchen

Please label your stuff - it makes it much easier to work out whose is whose if things get mixed up!! Please leave behind electronic devices/money/junk food/valuables /girlfriends/boyfriends.

Need a ride? If you are unable to transport your child to/from camp, our volunteers may be able to pick up /drop off a limited number of campers from within Whangarei city. Please indicate on the registration form if you need transport, and be ready at the address provided from 12:30 pm. Please advise if no longer needing a ride.

Visiting? Parents are welcome to visit during camp. Please introduce yourself to a leader on arrival and sign the visitors book.

Rules; We need your help to make our camp a friendly and safe 'haven' that's fun for all of us!!! At camp we aim for there to be no swearing, bullying, fighting, name-calling, threatening, stealing or lying. Please leave bad attitudes, knives, drugs, cigarettes at home. Also leave expensive or electronic equipment (ipads, electronic games, cameras), money, junk food all at home – we can't take responsibility for them if they go missing. You will survive without them for a few days.

Parents please encourage your child to speak with a leader should they have any worries during camp. Please be aware that campers who are impacting negatively on others' experience may be asked to return home.
